Darwin International Airport MASTER PLAN & ENVIRONMENT STRATEGY Preliminary Draft 2009

.....
SUMMARY
.....

WHAT IS A MASTER PLAN?

The Airports Act 1996 (the Act) and other regulations under the Act (the Regulations) stipulate the requirements for the management and operation of Darwin International Airport. The Act requires that DIA prepare a 20 year Master Plan to guide development of existing and proposed airport land uses and facilities. The Master Plan remains in force for a 5 year period, and thus is reviewed every 5 years.

WHAT IS AN AIRPORT ENVIRONMENT STRATEGY?

The Airports Act 1996 also requires that Darwin International Airport prepare an Airport Environment Strategy (AES), which is a five year strategic plan for the environmental management of operations at the Airport. Its purpose is to ensure relevant environmental standards and legislation is adhered to and establishes a framework for assessing environmental compliance against the standards and legislation. The strategy also guides continual improvement to environmental management across the airport.

The Airport Environment Strategy is relevant to all operations on airport, including both aviation and non-aviation related activities.

MASTER PLAN AND AIRPORT ENVIRONMENT STRATEGY CONSULTATION PROCESS

In developing the 2009 Preliminary Draft Master Plan (PDMP) and the Airport Environment Strategy (AES), DIA has undertaken consultation with government agencies, airlines, general aviation, airport businesses, as well as community groups to scope the major issues. The PDMP and AES are available for the community to view and provide comment on during the 60-business-day public comment period which runs until 14 October 2009.
